MARGIN SLIM FOR SENATOR LA FOLLETTE

WISCONSIN PRIMARY CONTEST STILL ANYONE'S RACE

Milwaukee, Aug. 13 (AP)—Sen. Robert M. LaFollette, Jr., who switched from the Progressive party into the Republican column, was encountering strong opposition tonight from a 37-year-old former Marine, Circuit Judge Joseph R. McCarthy, in the Wisconsin primary.

On the bas' of returns from 1,044 of the state's 3,146 precincts, LaFollette had 46,446 to 46,389 for McCarthy and it still was anyone's decision. Perry Stearns, a Milwaukee attorney, was out of the running with 6,339.

The returns also include 1 40 precincts from populous Milwaukee county which gave McCarthy a 600-vote margin.

McCarthy waged a vigorous campaign against the veteran Progressive senator, charging that his voting record was "isolationist."

LaFollette, who campained in the state only one week, declared that his 21-year record in the senate would speak for itself.

Farmers Favor Goodland

Rural Wisconsin was giving a substantial endorsement to its 83-year-old governor, Walter S. Goodland, seeking renomination for a third term.

On the basis of returns from 643 precincts, the chief executive who was repudiated by his own party organization had a lead of more than 6,000 over his chief rival, Ralph M. Immell, a former Progressive, but the reports were entirely from the rural areas with exception of three precincts from Milwaukee county where the first returns gave Immell a good margin.

The totals for 64 precincts gave Goodland 25,045 votes while Immell had 17,002 and Delbert J. Kenny, candidate of the state Republican organization, 8,59.

In the Democratic gubernatorial contest, Daniel W. Hoan, former Socialist mayor of Milwaukee, was far ahead of Stanley Fajkowski, also of Milwaukee. The vote in 520 precincts was Hoan 2,224, Fajkowski 550.

Work Is Resumed By 11,600 Idled In Packard Strike

Detroit, Aug. 13 (AP)—An estimated 11,600 workers, idled for eight days because of a dispute between Packard Motor Company and the CIO United Auto Workers, are due to return to their jobs Wednesday.

Settlement of the dispute, involving 8,500 workers at Pachard and 3,100 at the Meldrum plant of Briggs Manufacturing Company, was confirmed today by both principals. It centered about responsibility for plant maintenance work. Terms of the settlement were not announced.

The Meldrum plant manufactures Packard auto bodies.

But even as the Meldrum plant back-to-work call was issued, Briggs was confronted with a walkout of 2,700 employes at its Vernor Highway and Eight Mile plants today.

The company said the union walkout today was in protest of restoration of seniority to a returned veteran. Officials of Briggs Local 212, UAW-CIO, declined comment.

Gen. Chiang Promises New Government For China "Without Delay"

BY JOHN RODERICK

Nanking, Wednesday, Aug. 14 (AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek today promised solemnly to end Kuomintang (government) one party rule and institute a constitutional government in China without delay, despite all obstacles."

The statement, issued on the first anniversary of the surrender of Japan, broke Chiang's silence at the height of China's new crisis brought on by months of stubborn civil strife.

It came four days after the American envoys, Ambassador John Leighton Stuart and General George Marshall, announced that a general peace for China appears impossible.

General Marshall, special presidential envoy, has been working since last December to bring the Communists and the government together.

In a lengthy statement issued at the summer capital of Kuling, Chiang laid down a six-point governmental program for China. It included a decision to use political means to settle political differences and negotiate all pending problems—"but only if Communists give assurance and evidence that they will carry out the truce agreement, restore communications, respect decisions of executive headquarters, and integrate their army into a national army."

Chiang sketched what he described as Communist violations of agreements and said he hoped the Communist party, "reflecting on these facts, will come to this realization:

"Today our one important demand is that the Communist party change its policy of seizing power by military force and transform into a peaceful party. We want them to help us with peace in China."

The generalissimo said there must be a "deep understanding of the issues confronting the country. We must put down rebellions and make China a peaceful, democratic, unified, strong country. But government officials also must review their own mistakes and shortcomings."

TRUMAN VETOES RAILROAD BILL

Reorganization Measure Doesn't Cure Evils, Says President

Washington, Aug. 13 (AP)—President Truman tonight vetoed the Wheeler-Reed railroad reorganization bill.

The president said he was rejecting the measure because he feared it would not accomplish its purpose.

Among other objections, he said the bill "fails to direct specifically the immediate reduction of grossly excessive interest rates now wasting the funds of the railroads' in process of reorganization under Section 77 of the existing bankruptcy law.

The measure, the president said, does not "adequately cure the evils" under Section 77 which permit "improper control" of the railroads after their reorganization.

As another objection, the president said the bill fails to provide full protection against forfeiture of securities and investments.

The vetoed measure, a compromise of house and senate bills, provided that a carrier in bankruptcy might adjust its financial obligations if it had earned its fixed charges during a seven-year period ending in 1945, and if its gross operating revenue was $50,000,000 or more in any of the calendar years between 1942 and 1944, inclusive.

The bill provided that a Federal judge might allow the carrier 18 or more months, in the discretion of the interstate commerce commission, to accomplish its voluntary adjustment. The carrier would file an adjustment plan with the ICC. Pending approval of the plan the properties of the carrier would remain in the custody of the courts.

Shoe Makers Feel Material Shortages

New York, Aug. 13 (AP)—The National Shoe Manufacturers Association said today that the supply of materials for the shoe industry still is critical, with numerous factories closed and others in the process of closing despite reports from Washington that 500,000 to 1,000,000 cattle hides have been moved into the market.

TOP DIPLOMATS TO GET $25,000

Foreign Service Setup Revamped To Help Win The Peace

Washington, Aug. 13 (AP)—President Truman today signed a bill revamping the United States foreign service and increasing the annual salary of top diplomats from $17,500 to $25,000.

Terming the measure a step to make American efforts to win the peace "much more effective," the president thus authorized the first major changes in the career diplomatic service in 22 years.

The president's statement said the bill was signed into law at a time when Secretary of State Byrnes and other American diplomats in Paris "are demonstrating how great a stake the United States has in world affairs."

Sponsored by Rep. John Kee (D-WVA), the legislation was aimed at attracting top-notch negotiators into the state department by raising their salaries to a level approaching private industry.

In addition to providing a $15,000 yearly raise for ambassadors and ministers in the larger countries, the bill also makes it possible for lower-ranking foreign service officers to receive a maximum $13,500 salary.

Other changes enable the state department to:

1. Set up a foreign service institute, similar to the Army-Navy staff college, to train diplomats.

2. Retire service officers who fail to gain promotions.

3. Bring American attaches home once every two years, to keep them in closer touch with domestic events.

SWEDEN BACKED AS U. N. MEMBER

Portugal And Siam Are Strongly Opposed By Poland And France

By MAX HARRELSON

New York, Aug. 13 (AP)—The application of Sweden and Iceland for membership in the United Nations received tentative endorsement in the security's council membership committee today, but Portugal and Siam were strongly opposed.

In two lengthy closed sessions the 11-nation committee completed preliminary discussions of all the nine applications before it except those of Albania and Outer Mongolia which are being held up pending receipt of more information.

While there was no formal vote on any of the four applications under discussion today, the admission of both Sweden and Iceland seemed assured since no opposition was expressed. Russia, however, reserved the rights to reopen discussions on both at a later date.

Polish representative Jerzy Michalowski charged that the present government of Portugal was ideologically closely related to the Franco regime in Spain and to the governments which had existed in Germany and Italy before the defeat of those countries.

He added that Portugal was harboring axis war criminals.

In opposing the admission of Siam, French representative F. De Rose declared that Siam was guilty of aggression against Indachina in 1940 and that a state of war still existed between France and Siam.

Stepfather's Arm Shot Off; Youth, 17, Held For Assault

Paw Paw, Mich., Aug. 13 (AP)—A 17-year-old youth was charged today with felonious assault with a deadly weapon following an incident in which his step-father was shot and seriously wounded.

Police booked him as Arnold Edenburn, 17, of Kalamazoo and asserted that he fired the weapon at Deo Underwood, 47, whose right arm was torn off by the shotgun blast.

Edenburn waived examination before Justice Glenn Huey and was held in $1,500 bond for circuit court hearing.

Authorities said the shooting climaxed a series of disputes. Mrs. Underwood, the boy's mother, said the gun discharged accidentally while her husband was attempting to take it away from Arnold.

Army To Call 185,000 Men In 7 Months

Washington, Aug. 13 (AP)—Maj. Gen. Willard S. Paul said today that barring an unexpected increase in recruiting of volunteers the Army expects to call for 185,000 draftees in the next seven months.

Without the draft, he said, the service would be well under its authorized size by November.

For September, Selective Service has been called on for a quota of 25,000. Paul, the general's staff's personnel director, did not forecast the size of subsequent monthly calls before the draft act expires next March 31.

Recruiting has been running ahead of Army advance estimates, but Paul told a news conference that even if it mounted 100,000 beyond current expectations the draft would be needed to make up the differential.

On July 1, the Army had a net strength of 1,715,000 officers and enlisted men, or 165,000 in excess of its authorized strength, but Paul said it was dwindling rapidly. For one thing, it included 135,000 fathers, the last of whom must be released by the end of September.

Recruits during July numbered approximately 44,000, compared with 62,000 in June. The Army figures on 35,000 in August and 25,000 in September but Paul said these estimates might be exceeded.

Some 180,000 officers, excluding those on terminal leave, currently are on duty. Paul forecast that in addition to 50,000 regulars, about 100,000 National guardsmen and reservists would be required indefinitely to meet the Army's needs for officers. He said that about 800 would be nominated about August 20 for appointment in the regular army and that before the end of the year appointments would be made under recent authority granted by Congress to add 25,000 regulars.

Author H. G. Wells, 79, Dies In London

London, Aug. 13 (AP)—Herbert George Wells, prolific author and historian hailed as one of the great men of modern English letters, died at his London home today after along illness. He was 79.

Wells, whose monumental books popularizing history and science became world-wide best sellers, "died peacefully" at 4 p. m. (10 a. M., CDT), his secretary said.

"He had been in failing health for a considerable time," the secretary said. "The funeral will be private."

While Wells' secretary refused to elaborate on his statement, it has been reported that the author suffered for years from diabetes. His condition, however, had not generally been regarded as serious.

Wells was ranked by many with George Bernard Shaw and Rudyard Kipling as one of the big three of modern British letters — and certainly was the most versatile of them. No subject was too obscure for his attention, no task too big for him to undertake.

Much of Well's work was touched with prophecy. In 1914 he wrote "The World Set Free," which predicted the coming of the atomic bomb. In another work 13 years ago he wrote of harnessing atomic power, and said that "by the Autumn of 1954, a gigantic replacement of industrial methods and machinery was in progress all about the habitable globe."

The author had some 50 books to his credit—running the gamut all the way through sociology, political economy, history, science and romantic novels. He even dipped into the future with "the shape of things to come."

Wells' play, "The War of the Worlds," dealing with the theme of an invasion from Mars, caused widespread panic in the United States in October, 1938, when it was broadcast in an adaptation by the American actor-producer Orson Welles.

CREDIT CONTROL TIGHTENED UP

Repayment Time Cut; Deals Up To $2,000 Now Included

Washington, Aug. 13. (AP)—The federal reserve board today tightened its controls on credit, shortening the repayment time for a wide group of transactions and reimposing controls on credits in the $1,500 to $2,000 range.

The action, taken against a backdrop of price rises and swelling volume of credit dealing, was intended as an anti-inflationary move.

Two changes were made, effective Sept. 3, in the credit (regulation W) regulations which the board administers under a law passed during the first World War:

1. A previous provision leaving installment purchases of $1,500 or more free from controls was changed to take back under control those up to $2,000 and simultaneously was broadened to take in single-payment purchases and other credit deals apart from charge accounts.

2. The maximum maturity—repayment deadline—for durable goods was left at 15 months for automobiles and 12 months for other durables, but was shortened to 15 months from 18 months for all other installment loans.

Raising the regulation range of operations to $2,000 is expected to bring back under controls purchases of many automobiles which have been newly increased in price to put them, including freight charges, over the former $1,500 control limit.

JEWISH MOBS HURL STONES, DEFY CURFEW

GROUP OF ILLEGAL IMMIGRANTS SENT OUT TO CYPRUS

BY CARTER L. DAVIDSON

Haifa, Palestine, Aug. 13 (AP)—British troops firing rifles and Tommyguns killed three persons and wounded seven today in battling crowds of Jews rioting in protest against the shipment of 1,000 illegal Jewish immigrants to Cyprus.

Nearly 2,000 Jews, obeying an underground command to defy a strict curfew, raced down hillside streets and hurled stones and bottles at troops and police guarding the docks area with barbed wire barricades, tanks and trucks.

One of those killed was a 19-year-old girl. A moving tank injured one person.

Detention Camp Ready

The riots broke out after the sailing of two troopships carrying the first group of immigrants diverted to Cyprus in the new British policy of blocking all illegal immigration into the Holy Land. Jewish residents left their homes after the secret radio of the Jewish underground Hagana called upon them "to storm the streets."

Troops restored order, and the curfew was lifted at 2 p. m.

(Jews staged mass meetings throughout Palestine in protest against the immigration orders. In major cities, Jews called strikes starting at 5 p. m. today and lasting until tomorrow morning. In Tel Aviv, police said a man telephoned a hotel, warning that the building was to be blown up in two minutes, but nothing happened.)

The disorders started shortly after the sailing of two British troopships carrying 1,000 illegal immigrants to Cyprus and temporary detention there.

The immigrants were the first to be diverted to Cyprus under new British policy aimed at halting unauthorized immigration. Five hundred persons were transferred from the little schooner Yagur to the Empire Heywood and 500 from the Henrietta Szold to the Empire Rival. The Rival sailed about 9 a. m., and the Heywood an hour later on the 16-hour voyage to Cyprus, where a detention camp had been prepared near Famagusta.

Shot Stops Vessel

Even as they sailed, another ship, the Fenice bearing 650 immigrants arrived off Haifa harbor and reports said the ship tried to land its passengers on the beach. A police gunboat intercepted the vessel, firing across her bow when she ignored an order to stop. The

CARRIER STRIKE DEADLINE NEAR

Eleventh - Hour Meeting Called In Attempt To Avert Tieup

Washington, Aug. 13 (AP)—Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach tonight considered a request of CIO President Philip Murray for an eleventh hour conference with top company and union officials working to head off the Great Lakes maritime strike threatened for tomorrow midnight.

Murray proposed that Schwellenbach call in company officials of the 13 dry cargo and four tanker carriers involved, together with Joseph Curran, head of the CIO National Maritime Union. The CIO president offered to attend in an effort to end the dispute over a 40-hour week and a 10-cent increase in the hourly starting rate over which the strike has been set for Thursday at 12:01 a. m.

The companies, which have been conferring with union representative and federal conciliators separately under government auspices for the past week, have balked at industry-wide negotiations. Murray's move was regarded cautiously by the companies as a possible step in the direction of industry-wide bargaining which they opposed.

A night session was arranged by the conciliators, but Schwellenbach made no immediate announcement of his reaction to Murray's proposal.

Amendment Needed To Clear Airport Funds For Michigan

Lansing, Aug. 13 (AP)—Governor Kelly today urged Michigan voters to approve at the November election a constitutional amendment clearing the way for state airport construction, warning that otherwise the state would lose out on millions of dollars in federal airport funds.

Kelly said he had been informed that Michigan would receive $1,096,900 from the first apportionment of a $500,000,000 federal airport fund but unless the constitutional amendment is adopted, the state cannot use the money or any future grants under a seven-year federal program.

The state now has a $1,000,000 appropriation for airport development which is being held pending the decision of the voters.

Hospital Building Financing Allotted According To Needs

Washington, Aug. 13. (AP)—President Truman today signed a bill authorizing federal financing of one-third of a $1,125,000,000 hospital building program spread among the states according to their needs.

Mr. Truman declared the legislation contained objectionable precedents. In spite of them he signed it, he explained in a statement, because of "urgent need of a prompt start" on the five-year plan, "particularly the survey and planning aspects."

DEFENSE URGED IN DARDANELLES

Russia Seeks Deal With Turkey For Control Of Vital Straits

BY ROBERT JAMES

Moscow, Aug. 13. (AP) — The Soviet foreign office disclosed today a note to Turkey proposing that only the Black Sea powers should control the Dardanelles, and that Russia and Turkey jointly should organize defenses of the vital straits.

These defenses, the note said, would be designed "to prevent the use of the Straits by other states for purposes inimical to the Black Sea powers."

It said the Black Sea powers should take full jurisdiction in drawing up a new agreement for control of the straits to replace the 1936 Montreux convention. Britain and the United States were informed of the contents of the note simultaneously with its delivery to Turkey.

Foreign observers here saw in the proposal a candid statement of the Soviet position that the straits concern principally those nations bordering on the Black Sea, and that control should be in the hands of these nations. Russia's dissatisfaction with the Montreux convention has been known for a long time. The United States, not a signatory, proposed revisions after the matter was discussed at Potsdam last year.

Inquests Completed In Two Slayings By Heirens In Chicago

Chicago, (AP)—A coroner's jury closed its investigation of the Suzanne Degnan and Frances Brown slayings by finding the child and former Wave were killed by William Heirens, who last week confessed these and a third fatal assault.

The jurors added that they "concurred in the indictment" charging murder in all three deaths returned by the Cook county grand jury.

The 17-year-old defendant appeared but did not testify at the routine hearing to dispose of the oft-continued inquest. Before the hearing he underwent 45 minutes of mental examination conducted as part of a defense plan aimed at saving him from the electric chair.

Six-year-old Suzanne was kidnaped, strangled and dismembered Jan. 7 in the most shocking crime in Chicago history. Miss Brown, 33, was bludgeoned and knifed to death in her apartment Dec. 10. A coroner's jury earlier had concluded its investigation of the slaying of Mrs. Josephine Ross, 43 by deciding she was killed by persons unknown.

Heirens' next scheduled court appearance will be on Sept. 4 when he is to plead to the three murder indictments and more than a score of others charging burglary, robbery and assault.

Young Culbertson Arrested As Thief

New York, (AP)—Three teen-age youths, one of them the 17-year-old son of Ely Culbertson, bridge expert are in Rockland county jail today, charged with grand larceny in connection with the theft of radio and radar equipment from Navy ships anchored in the Hudson river.

The boys, who were arraigned last night and committed to jail for grand jury action, were identified as Bruce-Ely Culbertson, Harry Anderson Atslett, 2nd, 17, and Harry Maxwell Keiser, 18.

Cpl. Clarence Sullivan of the New York State Police quoted the boys as saying they conceived the idea of their expedition after they met a merchant seaman who told them of a flotilla of ships in the Hudson which were to be junked.

Ely Culbertson said at his home that he could not "understand why they were treated so severely."

"It was just a boy's prank," he said, "I know my boy and I know the other two boys. They were sure the stuff was junk which was to be scrapped. They are all good kids."

Old Ohio Law Bans Intoxicants Two Miles From Fairs

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 13. (AP)—The Ohio liquor department dumped into the attorney-general's lap today the knotty question whether it must ban the sale of intoxicating drinks within two miles of state and county fairs, in compliance with a law which went into Buckeye legal books 58 years ago.

Zanesville tavern operators, meantime, continued the sale of liquor despite the opening of the Muskingum county fair, with indications that the invitation to "set 'em up" would continue through the fair, ending next Saturday.

Liquor Director Robert M. Sohngen, after pondering application of the 1888 law for several days, referred it to Atty-Gen. Hugh S. Jenkins, with the additional request that a ruling also be handed down on whether the law applied to 3.2 beer.

Wallace Best, But Truman Will Win, Sen. Pepper Thinks

Washington, Aug. 13. (AP)—Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) said today he would "rather have Henry Wallace" for the 1948 Democratic presidential nomination but that President Truman's chances for renomination are "overwhelming."

The Florida senator told a news conference that he and others with like views are going to do everything they can to see that "the liberal element in the Democratic party is strengthened in every possible way."

"We shall not support anybody who is not a liberal for vice president," Pepper declared.

Asked if he would be a candidate for either the presidential or vice presidential nomination, Pepper said he felt as did Senator Taft (R-Ohio) that while he would not seek either nomination "I'm not going to run away from it."

A newsman asked Pepper if he advocated more liberal policies than those which have been sponsored by President Truman. The Florida senator replied he favored Mr. Truman's 21-point legislative program and believed the country would be better off if congress had carried it out.

Hides In Storage Shaken Loose To Avert Shoe Tieup

Washington, Aug. 13 (AP)—Morris Verner, official of the Civilian Production Administration, said today the government had "shaken loose" 500,000 to 1,000,000 cattle hides after official warning of danger of a shoe production shutdown.

Verner, CPA compliance chief, told reporters that an investigation of producer and tanner stocks had forced about 300,000 hides to market during the first 48 hours of the survey, launched a week ago.

About 300 CPA investigators are making the inventory check.

Reconversion Director John R. Steelman ordered the investigation of stocks that hide producers and tanners had on hand. CPA regulations permit only "minimum practicable working inventory."

The Steelman statement last week also reported the justice department was asked to investigate what he described as a reported industry "conspiracy" to hold back hides until the government is compelled to increase or remove ceilings. This investigation is underway, officials said.

Verner reported that hides forced on market as a result of the CPA inventory investigation had been sold at the ceiling price of 15½ cents a pound.

Mother And Child Killed With Pilot In Cornfield Crash

Hammond, Ill., Aug. 13 (AP)—A former army pilot, a 25 year old mother and her five year old daughter, all of Frankfort, Ill., were killed today in the crash of a private cabin plane in a cornfield a mile south of here.

They were identified by Coroner Arthur K. Palmer of Sullivan as:

Charles H. Norris, 26, a former army pilot and employe of the Central Light and Power Co. at Mt. Vernon, Ill.

Mrs. Ava Lou Le Grand Worsham, 25.

Karne Kay, Mrs. Worsham's five year old daughter.

The plane plunged into a field on the farm of Mack Griswold, and Paul Long, a neighbor of Griswold's, who witnessed the crash, told a reporter it "circled the house a couple times, pulled up into a stall and then dived." It did not burn.

Palmer said he established the identity of the victims through papers found in their effects and through Norris' father, Charles E. Norris of West Frankfort.

The elder Norris told him, Palmer said that the three had left in his son's plane for Chicago Friday and were to return home today.

The younger Norris, who Palmer said had served for three and a half years in the Air Forces, lived with his parents at West Frankfort. A sister, Mrs. Roscoe Brown of Los Angeles, also survives.

Palmer said Mrs. Worsham's husband, William, was in service with the armed forces in Japan.

Epidemic Of Polio Serious In Detroit

Detroit, Aug. 13 (AP)—Dr. Joseph G. Molner, deputy commissioner of health, today reported one death and five new cases of polio in Detroit.

He said the present polio rate "is comparable to the epidemic year of 1944."

Nine deaths now have resulted this year from the disease. There have been 92 cases.

Dr. Molner said he considers the present rate as serious as 1944 and urged that parents take extra precautions to guard their children.

Margarine was first made by a French chemist in 1870.

Fenice was anchored outside the harbor, with her passengers probably destined to be sent to Cyprus.

Fourten hundred immigrants still were aboard two other ships which arrived last week. They will be permitted to stay in Palestine after clearing through the Athlet quarantine camp, officials said.

The new British policy calls for deporting all immigrants who arrive after August 11.

(In Cyprus, a communique told the public that the Jews would be kept in camps there temporarily "until more permanent homes can be found for them elsewhere," and that none would be allowed to become residents of Cyprus.)

BY ARTHUR GAVSHON

London, Aug. 13 (AP)—A colonial office spokesman charged today that "American financial sources" were responsible for "encouraging and directing" illegal immigration of Jews to Palestine.

Asked to elaborate on the government's statement yesterday that "very large financial contributions" supported the mass exodus of European Jews to Palestine, the spokesman declined to specify individuals or organizations.

He recalled, however, "the many advertisements in United States newspapers appealing for money to aid European Jews to get to Palestine by illegal means." He cited one advertisement, published last April, which he said carried the phrase: "American dollars pitted against British arms."

At the same time a leading London spokesman for the new Zionist organization said the British policy in Palestine was "a blackmail on the United States" to force U. S. participation in a federalization plan. He urged the United States to aid refugee Jews and to advise American occupation forces in Europe to give the refugees every assistance.

Hard-To-Get Nails Easy Purchase For Capital Promoter

BY WILLIAM T. PEACOCK

Washington, Aug. 13 (AP)—House investigators heard today that the War Assets Administration's Philadelphia office sold hundreds of kegs of hard-to-get nails to Benjamin F. Fields, Washington promoter, despite absence of proper certification on his applications.

Lucian Sneed, hardware sales manager for the office, testified he allocated nails to Field from government surpluses on direct orders from his superior, William J. Gilgrein, the general sales manager, after protesting the improper certification.

Testifying before the House Surplus Property Committee, Gilrein had denied that any "special treatment" was given Fields' applications. He also declared there was no connection between Fields' dealings and his own dismissal from his job August 7.

His "firing," Gilrein asserted, was due to "politics," related to the Philadelphia and Pennsylvania Democratic organizations in general, but more specifically to Senator Myers (D-Pa).

State Department Fires 40 Employes As Security Risks

Washington, Aug. 13 (AP)—Forty state department employes have been fired for having "close connections or involvement with foreign governments' or past records indicating " a high degree of security risk," Secretary Byrnes disclosed in a letter made public today.

Byrnes added, however, that the great majority of government employes are "loyal American citizens."

The 40 were among 79 department employes discharged after preliminary examination of 3,000 employes by a screening committee.

Secretary Byrnes made the disclosure in a letter to Chairman Sabbath (D-Ill,) of the house rules committee who had written for information.

Sabbath told Byrnes that "it has been charged freely on the floor of the house by some members that hundreds, if not thousands, of employes have been eliminated from the state department by the screening committee because of Communistic leanings or activities or membership."

Such statements, Byrnes replied in his letter dated July 26, "are incorrect and do a grave injustice not only to the employes of the department but to government employes as a whole."

All U. S. Government Buildings Fly Flags On V-J Anniversary

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The flag will fly on all government buildings today (Wednesday) in honor of Victory Day—proclaimed by President Truman to signalize the first anniversary of the unconditional surrender of Japan.

In the defeated empire itself, V-J Day will be recalled quietly. The principal military display by the American occupying forces will be a parade past the imperial palace by the Seventh Cavalry regiment of the First Cavalry Division.

From Secretary of the Navy James Forrestal came a Victory Day statement that understanding between nations "must rest on the free exchange of information which alone can dissolve the mists of prejudice.

"We must fimly resolve," Forrestal said, "to keep ourselves strong for the tests of the future until the United Nations is an accomplished and working fact.' Meantime, he urged that we strive toward international unity and understanding.

To General Douglas MacArthur, heading Japanese occupation forces, went a message from Secretary of War Patterson congratulating him on "your great contribution to the magnificient victory achieved and your outstanding accomplishments in the past year to bring about a lasting peace."

MacArthur withheld his recapitulation of the results of a year's guidance of the island empire's affairs until the anniversary of the actual surrender signing aboard the battleship Missouri, Sept. 2.

V-J Days' anniversary found the general Japanese attitude as one of gratification that the country is more peaceful and better off physically than was expected a year ago.

Mr. Truman in his Victory Day proclamation, urged the people of America to commemorate "the devotion of the men and women by whose sacrifices victory was achieved."

He asked that it be a day "of prayer and of high resolve that the cause of justice, freedom, peace, and international good will shall be advanced with undiminished and unremitting efforts, inspired by the valor of our heroes of the armed services."

It will not be a legal federal holiday.

Beer-Filled Heifer Wins Blue Ribbon At Illinois Fair

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 13 (AP)—A yearling heifer, filled with four bottles of beer, won a blue ribbon today at the Illinois State Fair.

The animal plodded stolidly into the Coliseum arena after an employe of the J. Garrett Tolan farms, of Pleasant Plains, Ill., poured the beer down the heifer's throat to bloat her flanks.

Judges picked "Enquirer Dell" as champion Aberdeen-Angus senior yearling heifer.

LEMMER HEADS ALUMNI CLUB

University Of Michigan Group Holds Meeting At Camp Roth

Iron River—John Lemmer, Escanaba's superintendent of schools, was elected president of the Eleventh District, University of Michigan Alumni association, at the annual meeting Saturday afternoon at Camp Filibert Roth, summer forestry school of the state university at Golden lake. He succeeds William Miller, Rapid River.

Herbert J. Potter, Ishpeming, was renamed secretary-treasurer, and Aaron Lowenstein, Negaunee, was chosen vice-president. The U. P. association has not had a vice-president for several years.

Dr. R. J. Sanregret, Negaunee, continues for two more years as director of the association.

Inspected Camp

Some 39 alumni and guests attended a dinner served at noon by the camp staff, under the supervision of Prof. Robert Craig, camp director, who conducted an inspection tour of the camp, greatly improved since the U. P. conference was held here three years ago. Some 64 students, most of them World War II veterans, are attending the summer camp to qualify for forestry degrees.

The alumni, chiefly discussed the itinerary for Dr. Alexander G. Ruthven, university president, who plans a trip through the Peninsula late in October. His tentative schedule is: Oct. 28—Menominee; Oct. 29—Escanaba; Oct. 30—Ironwood; Oct. 31—Marquette; Nov. 1—Manistique, and Nov. 2—Newberry at noon and Sault Ste. Marie at night.

J. Hawley Tapping, Ann Arbor association secretary, talked on club activities and emphasized the forethought of officials of the state association and university in planning their postwar program. Others who spoke briefly were J. Joseph Hebert, Manistique, university regent; Prof. Leigh Young, member of the faculty of the summer session and president of the Ann Arbor club; Walter Roth, Ann Arbor, superintendent of plant at the university and Prof. Craig, who discussed the summer school.

Past Directors

Among the past 11th District directors in attendance were George A. Osborne, Sault Ste. Marie, and Harold L. Mead, Menominee. Resolutions of condolence for the late Torval Strom, Escanaba, past director, who died in Miami, Fla., were approved.

Tapping announced that a member of the coaching staff will tour the Peninsula in December, and that a dramatic group of the state university may come to the 11th District during the 1947 spring vacation. Club secretaries of the district presented their annual reports.

The 1947 conference of the district will be held in Escanaba during the second week in October.

Patients Chained In Nursing Home; State Takes Hand

Indianapolis, (AP) — Governor Gates conferred with officials of the State Department of Public Welfare, the Indiana Mental Health Council and the attorney general's office on the problem of nursing homes in the state.

The conference followed a raid Saturday on an Indianapolis institution where Marion County Prosecutor Sherwood Blue said he found patients chained to beds and tables behind locked doors.

The home was reopened after the operator, Mrs. Margaret Colvin, was released from jail on bond.

Cleon H. Faust, deputy attorney general, said the state would seek an injunction to prevent Mrs. Colvin from operating the home without a license. Licensing is under the State Department of Public Welfare.

Dr. C. L. Williams, director of the mental health council, told the governor regulations for nursing homes have been prepared. The governor said he would sign them as soon as they are cleared by the attorney generals office.

DIES OF INJURIES

St. Ignace—Mrs. Irving Fleming, 36 St. Ignace, died at 1:00 p. m., Saturday, August 10, 1946 in the War Memorial Hospital, Sault Ste. Marie, as the result of injuries suffered on the night of August 2, when hit by a car said to have been driven by James S. Parish, Jr., of Hulbert.

According to a report by State Police, who arrested Parish shortly after the accident when found parked in front of the Indian Village, he disclaimed knowledge of the accident though the door had to be forced open to release him and the left side of his car was badly stove in.

TOM WILLS RETIRES

Crystal Falls—Fifty-five years in the same business and the same building is the record of Thomas Wills, co-owner and manager of the Wills Hardware company, who over the week end announced his retirement. Ira Odgers, partner with Wills in the hardware company, has purchased Wills' interest.

No One Injured In Auto Collision

No one was hurt when the automobile driven by Norman Wilder of Hilmer, Mich., collided with a car driven by Wayne F. Weber of Marinette near Pine Ridge Sunday afternoon. Both vehicles were considerably damaged.

Wilder, who was traveling west, turned from the car directly ahead of him, which had stopped suddenly and unexpectedly. To avoid hitting the car, he turned left instead of right and met Weber who was coming from the east, the opposite direction, on the other lane.

The accident was investigated by the sheriff's office.

Urges Resort Expansion

ALTHOUGH the Upper Peninsula's tourist and resort industry has expanded about 75 per cent in the last decade, Prof. E. C. Prophet of Michigan State College believes that additional facilities could be used to advantage.

Professor Prophet has been making a careful study of the development of Michigan's recreational industry over a period of years. He points out that a few areas in the Upper Peninsula have been well developed, but that others have been neglected.

Quite likely, the professor is right, but his words should not lead former GIs and others to believe that there are unlimited opportunities in the resort business. The vacation season is still short, only about two months, despite all the efforts that have been made to extend it. Some operators, who know the game and are willing to work hard, are now realizing a good income. It is not a business in which every Tom, Dick and Harry can make a fortune in a few years, however.

It is true, as Prof. Prophet says, that the resort business is much more advanced in Lower Michigan and Northern Wisconsin. Just now, resorts and other properties in Wisconsin are changing hands at record high prices because there is money to be made during the current heavy travel season. How long the tourist rush will continue is something that cannot be easily predicted, although it is certain it will equal and quite likely exceed prewar volumes.

The Upper Peninsula would benefit from the expansion of tourist and resort facilities, but those who launch such enterprises should be careful to select good locations and consider the various problems and pitfalls that might face them.

Coveted Sheepskins

BOYS who left high school to join the U. S. Army and Navy have been accorded diplomas in generous numbers this year by the schools they left behind them.

This desirable outcome is greatly helped by the schools which both service organizations maintain. Instruction at these institutions is free to soldiers asd sailors, and credits earned often can be applied on home school records.

The American Merchant Marine is following the same plan with several shore schools, giving largely a nautical education which is useful to sailor boys seeking commissions and non-com advancement.

It is after they leave school that most young men and women realize the value of diplomas . A high school diploma, at least, is getting to be more and more a vitally necessary possession to the ambitious young people who aspire to something better. We can be justly proud of the government which is far-sighted enough to help make better and more efficient citizens of as many service youths as possible.

Two More Drowned

TWO deaths by drownings here on Monday again call attention to the dangers that face youngsters who go swimming at the old ore dock slips and other unprotected places on the bay.

The place for children to go for the enjoyment of water sports is at the supervised bathing beach at Ludington park, where the municipal recreation department maintains lifeguards on duty at scheduled hours.

Vega Turns On the Light

IN CLEVELAND, Ohio, a thirty-four-inch incandescent light bulb, of 160,000 candlepower, was lighted recently by a ray that came from the star Vega, 176 trillion miles from the earth.

Just how the scientific experts managed to pick up the light ray from Vega and transmit it hrough a photo-electric cell through telephone wires and then to the huge globe is something that we do not understand. For that matter, who knows exactly how the scientists ascertained that Vega is twenty-eight light-years from the earth or that it is several times brighter than the sun?

While we cannot explain the technical details by which the scientist manages to discover the secrets of the tremendous universe, of which this earth is such an infinitesimal fragment, there is no reason to doubt the accuracy of their information. By study, by test and by experiment, the scientist reveals the full truth of nature and nothing is to be gained by deriding the truth, even of it shatters some of our prejudices.

The work of the scientists is not understood by many Americans but, then, for that matter, the work of some average American citizen is not understood by many scientists. An expert astronomer, for example, might have difficulty in cultivating a field and producing a crop, but he is too smart to dispute the fact that farmers have the know-how and that harvests inevitably follow proper methods and proper conditions.

Cancer Overlooked

FAILURE of the Congress to take affirmative action on the Pepper-Neely bill for a 100-million-dollar concentrated attack on cancer is an unfortunate concession to the do-nothing school.

The search for a way to eradicate this scourge, which in the United States alone exacts 175,000 deaths a year, is thus left to incidental dabbling and uncoordinated research. The excuse offered by some opponents that the bill was too loosely drawn is no real excuse at all. There was plenty of time after the measure was introduced last October to make any desired amendments.

The fact that in cure and treatment of cancer we have advanced little in recent years is testimony to the inadequacy of our efforts.

Goods and Savings

THE value of all goods produced in the United States in the second quarter of 1946 exceeded $46,000,000,000, according to the department of commerce, which says this is a gain of $4,000,000,000 over the first quarter.

By comparison, when war production was in full swing in 1945, goods were being produced at a rate of about $52,000,000,000 a quarter.

It appears that individuals, however, are not saving anywhere as much money as they did in 1945. During the first six months of this year, net savings of the individual amounted to only half as much. For the first six months of this year, individuals have been saving at an annual rate of $19,000,000,000. While this may not be as much as the experts expected one might remark that it is not hay.

BULLETS AND BALLOTS
(Christian Science Monitor)

Thinking Americans will not dismiss the Athens, Tennessee, election disorders with mere observations on law and order. One hesitates, at this distance, to hurry conclusions as to the merits involved in what is obviously a complicated local political situation. But these are times which demand that all lessons possible be distilled from whatever trustworthy information is available.

This much of the evidence adds up significantly: A group of veterans backed a "reform" county slate with the purpose of ousting a well-intrenched political machine. This machine had tieups with and perhaps something more than moral support from outside politicians. Fights broke out between poll-watchers of the two sides. The "ins" made a move which convinced the veterans group their votes were about to be "counted out."

Then followed what appears to have been a riot between deputies of the incumbent sheriff and a mob which took on vigilante aspects, and ended with vigilante control of the county, with the mob psychology still lurking about. Local town officials were strangely absent, the mayor "on vacation," and the police chief "overslept."

This took place in a part of America where the vigilante tradition is still easily revived. And veterans anywhere sense enough of the fraternity of common experience to find quick unity in a crisis. But, granting these factors, what questions should the Athens incident suggest to other communities approaching elections?

Did this veterans' group have any justification for their evident fear that they had no effective recourse at law should the election be "stolen" from them? What conditions made possible a county regime which apparently did not hesitate to safeguard its tenure with armed watchers at the polls, and a town administration which abdicated until the trouble was over?

This recourse to violence was rash and dangerous, regardless of the provocation. But the storming of the Athens Court House is but a symptom of some things just as dangerous to self-government. And they are not limited to McMinn County Tennessee.

SACRIFICE OF LANDLORDS
(St. Louis Post-Dispatch)

The new OPA bill puts rents back where they were on June 30. When members of Congress were striving to raise prices on one commodity and article after another, mild voices suggested a moderate relief for landlords. They were shouted down.

As OPA has contended, some large real estate operators are probably enjoying the highest earnings of all time because there are no vacancies, and landlords can get by with meager service in such a market. But a very large part of the rental housing supply is made up of flats, duplexes and small apartments in which the life savings of frugal elderly people are invested. These people are squeezed, and they are hurt more each time increases ecur in the prices of food, goods and labor.

The price of lollypops tripled in New York—but the kids will keep right on being suckers.

There ought to be some way of repealing in-laws.

HERE'S HOW THEY TALK
(Radio Speech Portrait No. 42)
William L. Shirer

Voice, medium baritone of small range and rather flat quality, except on the high notes which become somewhat nasal in quality. As professional radio voices go, Shirer's is only soso.

Enunciation, careful and distinct. The articulation would be still clearer were the voice better placed. Even so, Shirer's enunciation is as good as, if not better than, the run-of-the-mine commentator.

Style, mild, methodical, and a little hesitant. Mr. Shirer does not 'read" well—that is to say, he has not yet learned the useful artifice of reading prepared "script" as if he were speaking without notes. Shirer's speech pattern is Standard American (as distinguished from the New England and Southern patterns). His delivery is matter-of-fact, and without any prettyisms of elocution. Hence, he is far more convincing than the blatting type of haranguer who seeks to wear you down by lung power alone.

Pronunciation, fair. It isn't so much a case of mispronunciation as it is of carelessness. For example, "guv-uh-ment" for realize, "prez-d'nt" for president, "learnt" (obsolete) for learned, etc. However, I am glad to report that Mr. Shirer is one commentator who pronounces the name Washington correctly. It is little short of amazing how often Washington is given the degraded pronunciation "Worsh-in-dun," yes, and even from the capital city itself.

Score: Voice, 18; enunciation, 23; style, 20; pronunciation, 17. Total, 78. Rating, good.

Next week Bernard M. Baruch. Your comments and nominations are invited.

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington—In every session a certain number of screwball bills get dumped into the congressional hopper. These are often measures put in as a gesture to pacify some organization or pressure group, with no expectation that they will ever be seriously considered.

Childs

At first glance, a proposal that died with the 79th Congress has the look of a bit of whimsy. But in the fantastic time in which we are living, this proposal may before too long come to seem merely elementary common sense.

The resolution introduced by Representative James W. Trimble of Arkansas provided for a government of the United States in the event an atomic bomb should land squarely on Washington and wipe out the President, Vice President, all the members of the cabinet, the entire Congress and the supreme court. The resolution proposed a constitutional amendment to be ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the states.

—GOVERNORS WOULD CHOOSE—

Under the proposed amendment, if the government in Washington were wiped out, the first step would be for the top officers of the army, navy and air forces to choose "a civilian to act as interim President." This is on the assumption, of course, that the commanders of the three services would survive and be in active command of forces is the field.

The interim president is to call a meeting of the governors of all the states. The governors will then select by a majority vote one of their number to act as president. "Those selected by the governors shall immediately take office and serve for the uncompleted portion of the terms for which the last elected president and vice president were elected, respectively, at the site selected by a majority of the governors."

You will be able to pick it up on your television set—unless, of course, the radioactive effect of the bomb has knocked out all television and radio. The governor of Illinois is being sworn in as president of the United States in a deep underground shelter at the capital in Springfield, which, until the war ends in victory and Washington can be restored, will be the capital of the United States.

As seen on the television screen, the faces of the newly chosen leaders of the country are tense and drawn. The words they speak are measured and solemn. This is the first time that a foreign enemy has carried war to the shores of the United States. And it is war, says the new president, of a more awful kind than the world has ever known; war that will mean further fearful sacrifices from the American people.

A hot weather fantasy? Yes—but if the atomic armament race goes on, it can become reality.

—COULDN'T BE FORESEEN—

Congressman Trimble says he was reading the constitution one night when it occurred to him that no provision is made for another government in the event of the destruction of all the chief officers of the existing federal government. The framers of the constitution could hardly have been expected to foresee the age of mass death. They lived in a simple time when warfare was a matter of individual killing individual on a chosen field of battle. Towns were sacked, but only incidentally and not as a calculated part of strategy.

Nor could the framers of the constitution have foreseen the great concentration of our economic and political life. That concentration is the direct result of the vast new techniques of power—steam, the internal combustion engine and, now, atomic fission.

The power of economic decision is so concentrated in New York, and the power of political decision in Washington, that it is hard to see how a modern war could be waged if one center or the other were destroyed. For modern war with its intricate technology, necessarily based on a great industrial complex, requires instant overall decisions. Our industrial concentration in a few centers makes this country peculiarly vulnerable to atomic air attack.

Anyone who thinks Congressman Trimble is dreaming up unnecessary trouble should consider the sober fact that a committee on underground sites named by the army-navy munitions board is now surveying natural caves and man-made caverns, such as mines, in order to find those adaptable for "vital industrial production and other military purposes."

In the first instance, they would be used for the storage of essential machine tools and critical raw materials. While we are studying ways to hide our machine tools, we might also find a safe place to shelter a substitute government.

'I Wish I Knew Where You Boys Were Taking Me'

Good Morning!
By The Bugler

IT'S INFLATION— Let the money changers in the Wall Street temples whistle any tune they please, there is always an undercurrent of harmony. And the tune has a line from an old popular song about an airplane that goes "up, up, a little bit higher." The echo of that refrain will be heard in Walla Walla, Keokuk and Escanaba.

Dunathan

It's the song of inflation, and don't let anyone tell you that "the price line is being held." Even the much-opposed OPA, which fought rising prices for so long, is now sitting around making arrangements for its own funeral. Incidentally, the cost of dying has gone up, too, so it will be quite expensive to the taxpayers to give OPA a belated but decent burial.

No matter how you look at the national, state and local scene the background music is the same—a symphony of higher prices, with an obligato of complaints by the consumer.

* * *

MILLIONS AND BILLIONS — The inflation sound may have the delightful tinkle of pennies in the cash box, but it adds up into millions and billions.

Right now officials of the state of Michigan, facing a November election and the necessity of raising a sufficient number of millions to pay a bonus to Michigan veterans, are revising upward their original bonus cost estimates. The bonus proposal undoubtedly will gain the favor of the voters, for not one voice in authority has been raised against it. And the average citizen, accustomed to money coming from nowhere when it came "from the government", will vote yes and then complain later about taxes.

The Michigan three per cent sales tax is another case in point. Sales tax revenues go gaily bouncing from one higher note to another as the consumer pays more sales tax on prices which go gaily bouncing from one higher note to another.

* * *

SHORT AND HIGH—The argument that without price control production will go forging ahead to supply us with all the goods we need at lower prices is fine up to a certain point: The year we can expect arrival of this happy condition.

Meanwhile we are in that particular incubation period in the fever of inflation which has been diagnosed by one businessman friend of ours as follows: "Price will go up until they find their level."

Like all fevers, however, there is always danger of fatal termination.

* * *

TOUCHES EVERYWHERE — Inflation touches everywhere. One of the most dispiriting aspects of inflation is the ill-feeling it produces among those caught in its toils.

World War II veterans back from service for several months to a year find themselves the objects of solicitous confusion. On one hand they are (in Michigan) promised a bonus which will cost the taxpayers millions of dollars. On the other they cannot find (in the majority of cases) a suitable place where they and their families may live. And even inadequate housing, outside rent control areas in the state, comes high under present inflated price conditions.

INTO THE PAST

10 Years Ago—1936

Mr. and Mrs. E. John Nicholas and family have returned to their home here from Marquette where Mr. Nicholas attended the summer session of Northern State Teachers' college.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stoik returned to their home here following a two week visit in Duluth and Northern Minnesota.

Miss Agnes Burke, Miss Alice Cox, Miss Dorothy Cox, and Miss Katherine O'Brien have returned from Kalamazoo where they attended the summer session of Western State Teachers' college.

Lawyers hope for a settlement which will halt further sensational proceedings in the child custody suit between Mary Astor and Dr. Franklyn Thorpe.

Col. Charles Lindbergh and Dr. Alexis Carrell today displayed their mechanical heart to excited professional men in Copenhagen.

20 Years Ago—1926

"Ma" Ferguson, governor of Texas, announced yesterday that she is candidate in the run-off primary for governorship again, and declared that she was out to defeat the Ku Klux Klan.

Plans for the DeMolay Whirl, set for September 3, are being made by Kryn Bloom, George St. Louis, Samual Mills, George Thurman, Gilbert Hood and Russell Skellenger.

Alma Gaufin has returned from a buying trip in Chicago and New York for the Style Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Boudreau have returned from a wedding trip to the Wisconsin Dells and have set up housekeeping.

Mexican soldiers executed two Catholic priests and 27 to 38 Catholic citizens on a charge of heading an uprising that grew out of a religious situation.

And down at Ypsilanti the other day, members of the executive committee of the State of Michigan Students Veterans association, proposed an increased subsistence rate for veterans in school under the G. I. Bill. The committee also favored extending hospitalization and dental care for veterans.

The reason for these requests can be found in inflation. Subsistence payments which, a few months ago, were adequate are now insufficient because prices on food, housing, clothing and other essentials have gone up.

* * *

CIVILIAN PROBLEM — The plight of the war veteran is a public problem, or at least it is so viewed by a majority of our people. The difficulties of the civilian under inflation is his own affair, to cope with as he will. The war veteran may ask (and perhaps receive) higher subsistence so that he may continue his studies. The civilian college student whose budget is out of balance must look to his own efforts and those of his family and friends—including a loan from the local bank—to carry him through the lean years of higher learning and higher prices.

* * *

SELFISHNESS THE CAUSE — Stripping away bias and political subterfuge, the inflation picture is revealed as being painted with the brush of selfishness. The eager painters were there before, but the brush-weilders have their big opportunity in war and post-war periods.

Cost-plus contracts, bribery and favoritism, selfish labor organizations and selfish management, speculators who withhold goods to create scarcities and higher prices, and individuals generally who see no harm in the sharp deal, the white lie and the black market helped paint the picture

Q. I named my mother as beneficiary for my government life insurance policy in 1941. May I change it to my wife now because my mother died recently?

A. The term refers to a natural drying-out of oil seepages in an area not far from Los Angeles.

Q. What was the cause of the "Little Steel" strikes in the spring of 1937?

A. The purpose of the "Little Steel" strikes, involving among others, the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Company and the Republic Steel Corporation of Youngstown and Chicago, was to seek to compel the companies to recognize the union and negotiate a written collective bargaining agreement with the Steel Workers Organizing Committee, an affiliate of CIO. As a practical matter, the strike was "broken" as a result of the so-called Memorial Day massacre in Chicago, in which several strikers were shot and killed by the police.

Q. I was told that about three-fourths of an Irish potato is water. Is the statement true?

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Vienna—(By Wireless) — Harold Ickes did the U. S. navy a great favor when he blocked the ebullient Ed Pauley from becoming Undersecretary of the Navy but, unfortunately, Ickes wasn't able to bar Pauley from other fields of endeavor.

Pearson

You don't realize how grateful the American public schould be to Ickes until you've witnessed Pauley's work elsewhere. All over Europe other Americans are now trying to pick up and put together the broken pieces resulting from Pauley's clumsiness. Here in Austria you see the results of one of his worst blunders.

When any good business firm signs a contract it first brings in expert lawyers to scrutinize that contract from every possible angle. But when the United States signed the contract on German reparations, influencing whether American boys will fight again, we brought in a political pal of Harry Truman's, skilled in buttonholing delegates at the Chicago Democratic convention. At Potsdam, Pal Pauley okayed the reparations agreement giving the Russians the the right to take German property in various areas—but he forgot to define German property.

In Austria today, Gen. Mark Clark is now trying to atone for that omission. For instance, when Hitler seized Jewish property that property officially became German and now, under Pauley's slipshod agreement, the Russians are carting off Jewish property, claiming it is German. Apparently they think the Jews didn't suffer enough.

—HOW CLARK FOILED RUSSIANS—

Another thing Pauley forgot was that in 1938 when Hitler took over Austria, he nationalized all Austrian industry. It therefore became officially German and under Pauley's reparation rules it can be seized by the Russiass who are wasting no time in seizing it despite the fact that, actually, it is 100 per cent Austrian. All this has contributed to the head-on clash between Russian and American forces in Austria—a clash which is the most significant in Europe and which may set a pattern for future U. S.-Russian policy.

General Clark, who did his best to cooperate with Moscow at first, has now abouttaced his original "after you, Alphonse" attitude and is opposing every unauthorized or unfair move the Russians make. When the Red army started to take over Austrian industry General Clark tacitly encouraged the Austrian government to pass a law nationalizing all that nation's industry under the Austrian government itself. This really put the Russians on the spot for, according to the tenets of Communism, industry should be nationalized. Thus, while trying to spread Communism in Austria the Russians were in the position of going directly counter to Communism.

By wanting Austrian industry for themselves, the Russians even had the gall to demand that the Austrian parliament be overruled by the Allied armies of occupation. It was at this point that Clark made as neat a use of the famous veto as Comrade Molotoff—if anything, neater.

The American commander had persuaded the Allied council to adopt a rule that any act of the Austrian parliament shall become law if, after 31 days, the Allied council does not overrule it. Therefore, all Clark has to do is sit back, exercise his veto for 31 days, and the Russians are out of luck. The Austrian edict nationalizing industry then becomes law and the Reds can't seize it.

—VIENNA SINGS CLARK'S PRAISES—

With the Soviet drive on to take over Austrian industry, Clark phoned Secretary of State Byrnes and got his O. K. on a plan to return to Austria the factories in the American zone. The declaration of Moscow specifies that Austria was dragged into the war by Hitler and is to be built up after the war. So Byrnes agreed that the factories should be returned to Austria. Amid paeans of praise from the Vienna press, therefore, and with thousands of people watching, Clark held an impressive ceremony at the Hermann Goering Works and handed it back to Austria. Naturally this raised U. S. prestige sky-high and made the Russians and their seizure policy look very sick indeed.

Meanwhile, the Russians have been frantically trying to promote Communism in their zone—the wealthiest and largest of all Allied occupied areas. The only real progress they have made is through the policy of hiring Austrian workers in Russian-managed factories at a much higher wage level than is paid in other Allied areas. In addition—and in a country which is starving, this is all-important—Russian employees get 5,000 food calories per day as against 1,300 for workers in the rest of Austria. Naturally, therefore, Austrian workmen flock to Russian factories whenever they can.

What the Austrian workers don't know is that their extra wages come out of the Austrian treasury and that their food comes, in part, from the United States. What happens is that the Russians collect extra occupation costs from the Austrian government and use the money to pay off their factory workers. Also, the Russians get an extra food ration from American sources thanks to the stupidity of UNRRA and our French and British allies.

BROTHERS ARE DROWNED HERE

Bodies Of Adams Boys Are Found At Ore Dock

The bodies of Lloyd Bruce Adams, 9, and William Adams, 7, were recovered yesterday morning near the No. 1 dismantled government dock between Escanaba and Wells.

Police began an early morning search yesterday for the two boys, sons of Mrs. Carl Johnson, 1608 Washington avenue, after their clothes were discovered Monday night near the docks, and identified later in the evening by Mrs. Johnson.

The bodies were found about three feet apart, in approximately five feet of water, and 150 feet from the spot where the clothes were discovered.

The brothers were last seen about 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon on Washington avenue.. The tragedy is believed to have taken place that afternoon around four o'clock. Police theorized that the children were playing in a shallow sandy channel near the dock, and possibly the younger one fell into the nearby deeper water. Most likely the older boy went to the assistance of his brother.

The boys' clothing was discovered Monday night at 8:15 by the Rev. A. L. Colegrove and Vernon Thompson, who were fishing at the dock site.

The search was conducted yesterday morning by Chief of Police Mike Ettenhoffer, Capt. Dan Garrett of the lighthouse service, Sheriff William Miron and deputies, and the Rev. Colegrove.

Lloyd Bruce Adams was born August 15, 1936, at Flint, and would have observed his tenth anniversary this Thursday.

William Adams was born October 20, 1938, at Flint.

The boys are survived by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, 1608 Washington avenue; one brother, Sharon; one sister Mary Sue; their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gust Eliason of Escanaba; and their step-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Johnson of Gladstone.

The bodies were taken to the Anderson funeral home, where they will be in state on Thursday. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock at the funeral home, with the Rev. Birger Swenson of Calvary Lutheran church officiating. Burial will be made in the family lot in Lakeview cemetery.

Samuel J. Fillion Of Kingsford Dies

Iron Mountain—Samuel J. Fillion, 49, 204 Doraland, Kingsford, married and father of seven children, was killed instantly at 1:20 Saturday afternoon when he was crushed against the side of the Emil S. Johnson residence, 1006 West A, by a truck owned by the Rocconi Fuel company, Kingsford and driven by John Paruleski, 48, 222 Beech, who with Fillion was making a delivery of coal, and was backing the truck to the coal chute at the Johnson home.

Funeral services for Fillion, resident of Kingsford for the past 22 years, will be held at 7:30 (CST) tomorrow morning at the residence and at 8 at the Church of the American Martyrs. The Rev. Fr. John Hughes will recite the rosary, with the Holy Name Society, of which Fillion was a member, at 7:30 tonight at the residence.

Born March 26, 1897, at Escanaba, he leaves his widow; two sons and five daughters. They are Donald, Robert, Theresa, Carol Jane, Joyce and Dona Mae, at home, and Mrs. Ersal Bourassa, Niagara. There is one grandchild.

Simmons Mattress Plant Hit By Fire

Indianapolis, (AP) —A three-alarm fire swept through the factory of the Simmons Mattress Company on the south side of Indianapolis and spread rapidly to the loading dock of the Strohm Warehouse and Cartage Company which adjoins the Simmons plant.

Battalion Chief Charles Gregory said exploding ammonia tanks kept firemen out of the Simmons factory at first.

Lt. Glen Wills was injured slightly when he was struck in the neck and knocked down by a piece of metal from one of the exploding tanks. He was treated at the scene by a physician.

Spouses Impede Modern Romance

By RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

The romantic love story is changing with the times.

Once the great love stories were those of young lovers who had to overcome parental interference in order to reach the happy ending—marriage.

Now the love stories that make the front pages of the newspapers deal not with young lovers, but with older, more experienced men and women. And instead of fighting parental interference in order to reach a happy ending, the "heroic" couple must overcome the interference of a husband or wife.

For the great love stories of today are triangles—with a husband or a wife "the villain" of the romance.

In one day's news were three such stories, the main characters of each being so familiar to the reading public that they were referred to in the headlines of some newspapers by their first names.

"Norah and 'Red' to Marry Next Tuesday," read one headline. Which meant, to the reading public, that an English barmaid and the American soldier who fathered her quadruplets had at last reached the happy ending of marriage, barred to them for a time by the inconvenient fact that the soldier-lover already had a wife.

War Bride Weds Lover

Romance — 1946 style — triumphed again in the same day's news. "Jean Gets Divorce, Marries Son's Father." That meant, to the reading public, that the English war bride who came to this country to be reunited with the father of her child, rather than with her husband, had at last succeeded in eliminating the husband from the picture, for a happy second-wedding fade-out.

The third romance publicized that day hasn't yet reached the happy-ending stage. But, no doubt it will. For the "one-man army of Bataan" answered his wife's statement that she would not give him a divorce with, "I'm going to marry Patty if it takes 10 years."

So there you have it—the modern love story. A man and a woman meet and fall in love, but the happy ending has to wait—even though parenthood sometimes does not—on one frustrating factor, the mundane necessity of getting rid of a husband or a wife.

Former Escanaban Figures In Rescue Of Lake Yachtsmen

Arthur Kristiansen, former Escanaba resident, now captain of the ore carrier A. A. Augustus, was responsible for the rescue of four Chicagoans who had clung to a sailboat which capsized 10 miles off Jackson Park harbor in Chicago at 10 p. m. Sunday evening.

Capt. Kristiansen heard the four call for help when his ship was in the area of the tragedy at 5:30 Monday morning. He maneuvered the Augustus about so that his second mate, Frank Harmon, of Chicago, could swim to the capsized craft and help the members of the party to the ore ship at a time, using a life preserver. They were then taken into Chicago.

Two couples, Charles Andrews of Park Ridge, Van Norris, Miss Connie Haight, and Miss Beatrice Jones of Chicago, left Grant Park for an evening ride aboard Andrews' 23-foot sailboat, the Wahsphtaysee. A wind squall about 10 p. m. overturned the craft 10 miles from shore. While the young women clung to the side of the boat, the two men swam under the hull and released heavy objects so the craft would stay afloat.

High waves pounded the two couples most of the night and they helped each other maintain holds on the boat. Other ships passed near them but their shouts were unheard because of the water and the waves.

FISH CANNERY INTRIGUES RICH

Midland Editor Writes About Alaskan Salmon

By PHIL RICH

Hidden Inlet on the Portland Canal, Alaska—Back here 65 or 70 miles from the nearest town there is a large canning factory. It is run by the Nakat Packing Corp., which is owned by A. & P. Tea Co.

We tied up for the night, had a chance to meet the manager Dennis Ryan, see the layout and later visit his home, where he and his wife and three children spend most of the summer.

The cannery has been here since 1916 but was rebuilt in 1922 after a fire. Ryan says they have about a million and a quarter dollars in this project. He's been at this business since 1916 and with this firm since 1922. They hire 87 Filipino men; 29 Indian women and 87 whites—a total of 196 right now.

The cheapest labor up here runs $170 a month with a guarantee of two months work. And they get $1.17 an hour for every eight hours. They have other plants at Union bay, Nakeen and Bristol bay. The top mechanic up here makes $3,600 a season, the next man in line makes $3,000 for five months. "High school boys come up here and work and make as much as $1,000 in two and a half months," says Ryan. "This is apt to spoil them for any other job for a long time," he comments.

Salmon runs are tricky. First there may be none or few for a time and then they run day and night and the pack goes on continuously. This plant has 36 buildings and 20 native houses. They are right up to date with hot and cold running water, showers, wash bowls, huge 11-foot electric stoves, electric lights and every convenience you can think of and the place is spotless, well painted with neat grounds and mowed lawns.

The salmon is cooked an hour and a half at 13 pounds pressure and at a heat of 242 degrees. In this cannery they have averaged 111,000 cases for the past 10 years with a high of 217,000 and a low of 56,000.

A chart prepared by Ryan shows that there are 31 days in the last working season.

They are allowed to catch the fish on certain days and then they must stop and let the fish run for a few days, so that some will get by their traps and seines and the supply will not be depleted. For instance they work from 6 a. m. July 29 to 6 p. m. on August 5. Every Sunday is closed to fishing and some times they throw in a Friday night and Saturday.

This cannery can put up 6000 cases of salmon in 12 hours with two lines operating. They get 80 per cent of their fish from traps and 20 per cent from seines. The fish run from six and a half to 25 to the case and average 12¼. A case is 48 pounds of fish. This cannery has a 400 horsepower power plant and could step it up to 150 more if needed.

But both up there and elsewhere along the coast report was the same: "The fishing is poor." In the Ketchikan area the salmon pack is nearly 700,000 cases short so far this season as compared with a year ago the figures this year 1,065,000 cases and a year ago 1,738,000 cases. So Milady may find the supply of canned salmon short for another year unless things pick up as this area is supposed to be the "Salmon canning capital of the world."

One would hardly expect to see such a modern place back in the interior as this cannery. The Ryans have a fine, modern home with everything one could wish, including a piano, electricity, bath, modern kitchen, expansive yard and garden, and even a phone service running to all buildings. There is also radio communication to their other canneries and an operator on the job all the time. Plane travel out is easy and expensive. The scenery is superb. The Ryan youngsters get a bit lonesome and the parents bring children out from town to play with them. Ryan loves the business and the country. Mrs. R. doesn't care for it but says "his work is here." They return to Seattle in the winter as do many of the whites, a few going to Ketchikan and other towns.

Thor Reque Is Named Recreational Director

Acting on the recommendation of the city's recreational board, the Manistique city council Monday night hired Thor Reque, high school physical education instructor, to serve here as city recreation director. Appropriation for Reque's salary and for the development of municipal recreation is already in the city's budget for the current fiscal year.

Declining to turn over to Ferd Gorsche, band director, the $450 appropriated for band purposes, the council decided to make the band a responsibility of the recreation board and the money will be placed in its hands. The board will be obligated to compensate the members of the city band from the budget money for whatever rehearsals and concerts have been played this summer. Actually, councilmen said, the local organization is not a municipal band and there is nothing in the city charter or in ordinances which gives the city control over it, though it has been functioning as a city band.

Post Danger Signs

The new recreation director will promote and coordinate diamondball, hard-ball, swimming, football, basketball, skating, horseshoes and other athletic activities for virtually every age group. A plan was studied to provide supervised swimming for local youngsters at Indian Lake state park with daily transportation at no cost to the youngsters. Amateur city football and city league basketball teams will be promoted this fall and winter. A number of horseshoe courts are soon to be set up by the city.

In discussing the local swimming situation it was pointed out that a large number of both youngsters and adults have been using the abandoned quarry here for swimming and the council instructed the acting city manager, Frank Voisine, to have danger signs posted there.

The customary contribution of $100 was authorized for the Manistique-Schoolcraft Chamber of Commerce which recently opened its annual membership drive.

A resolution was passed ordering a 50 per cent refund of their city taxes to three residents, two widows and an elderly disabled citizen whose property valuations this year were set at a substantially higher figure than in the previous year.

July report of income and disbursement in the Schoolcraft county Office of Veterans Affairs was received by the council.

A letter from the Girl Scout council expressed the thanks of that organization to the city for the use of the trailer park for the Girl Scouts' day camp this summer.

Request Street Light

Request for a street light on Riverdale made by three property owners, Joe L. Giovannini, Ray D. Lancour and Wilbur Burns, was turned over to the manager for investigation.

The need of some kind of traffic light at Maple and Arbutus and at Chippewa and Deer streets was briefly discussed and Police Chief Roy Anderson, who was present at the meeting, suggested that red blinker lights in the traffic signs would prove an adequate solution of the problem. The city manager was instructed to investigate further.

The city will eventually take over the maintenance of Lakeview cemetery and City Attorney Gottfried Johnson was instructed to initiate the necessary legal steps involved. Although reluctant to assume the responsibility which will necessarily entail financial outlay for labor, councilmen agreed that the city has a moral obligation in the matter of maintaining the burial grounds.

A letter from Fred E. Williams, 639 Arbutus, regarding the freezing of his water pipes every winter, was turned over to the manager for investigation.

City Hall Now On 40-Hr. Work Week; Opens At 8:30 a.m.

Effective at once the Manistique city hall will not open mornings until 8:30 o'clock instead of 8 as in the past. It will continue to be closed from noon until 1 o'clock and the afternoon hours of 1 to 5 o'clock remain unchanged. On Saturday it will remain open from 8:30 a. m. until noon.

The city council approved the change—a reduction from a 44 to approximately a 40-hour week—at the request of city hall employes who presented a petition to that effect at the council meeting Monday night.

Employes at the county courthouse and in other public offices have been operating on a 40-hour week for some time.

INVITE THREE FOR INTERVIEWS

Other Applicants For Manager Job Not Ruled Out

Three of the 13 applicants for the position of city manager here were invited by the city council at its regular meeting Monday night to come to Manistique at their earliest convenience for interviews with the city fathers.

The men are Nasweb G. Damoose, director of public service and city engineer at Battle Creek, Edwin W. Larsen, a civil engineer in Ludington, and Peter F. Roan, assistant engineer of the village of Wayne.

This action by the council does not preclude the other applicants from further consideration but because the three chosen are all Michigan residents and can come to the city more conveniently and because all appear to have sound qualifications, councilmen deemed it advisable to confer personally with them.

It was not considered necessary to extend an invitation to Phil Beauvais, former manager here who is interested in returning to the city in that capacity, as all of the councilmen are familiar with his ability and are personally acquainted with him.

A number of the applicants have been automatically eliminated because of inadequate qualifications, background or experience and it was not believed that several others who live in New Jersey and Missouri would come here at their own expense merely for interviews.

The men who come here to be interviewed, probably this week, will come at their own expense with the understanding that the man hired, if any is, will be reimbursed by the city.

Today America celebrates the first anniversary of V-J Day, the great solemn day when final victory in the late war was achieved, and there is rejoicing throughout the land.

We, who gave a little of our effort to defeat the enemies of justice, of brotherly love, equality and decency, dedicate this date to our late comrades-in-arms in both World War I and World War II.

We ask all to join us as we pause this day to offer a silent prayer for those of us who gave "the last full measure of devotion"—dying that democracy might live. Today, in victory and in peace, we humbly and gratefully salute the memory of our dead brothers-in-arms.

V-J Day Memorial Service To Begin At 10:30 O'Clock

Munising.—The city of Munising will start its celebration of V-J Day with a memorial service for the Alger county dead, to be held at the city park beginning at 10:30 o'clock.

The Roderick Prato Post, American Legion, will conduct the service. Taking part will be Commander A. M. Stebler, Joseph G. Artibee, senior vice commander; William Dore, acting junior vice commander; Dr. G. B. Baxter, chaplain; Clarence Freed, sergeant-at-arms; Gary Zastrow and William Shaffstall, buglers; and Mrs. Eugene Christman, Legion Auxiliary president.

The eulogy will be delivered by the Rev. Frederick T. Steen, pastor of the First Presbyterian church here.

The Gold Star mothers or nearest of kin of deceased veterans, will be presented with Gold Star certificates during the service. Those who will receive the certificates are requested to report at the Legion club before going to the park for the ceremony at 10:30 o'clock.

The memorial service will be held in the Mather high school auditorium in the event of rain.

Those of the Roderick Prato Post who have been in charge of arrangements are: Chairman Frank Doucette, William Mazzali, Conrad Leiphart, B. L. Zastrow, Dr. G. B. Baxter, Arthur LaFlamm, Benjamin Hankin, A. M. Stebler, Robert Villemure and Frank Fleming.

NO STORY HOUR TODAY

Munising.—There will be no story hour at the Munising library Wednesday, August 14, due to the observance of V-J Day. They will continue next Wednesday, August 21.

V-J Program Will Continue Through Day And Evening

Munising—The complete program of the Munising V-J Day observance has been listed as follows:

Memorial services at Bay Shore Park—10:30 a. m.

Baseball game between Newberry juniors and the Munising Legion junior baseball team at city playgrounds—1:30 p. m.

Boxing by Munising's juvenile fistics at Bay View addition ring beginning at 3:30 p. m. A ten bout card is scheduled.

Firemen's water fight at the fire hall—5:00 p. m.

Band concert by the Mather high school band at the Bay Shore Park—7:00 p. m.

Address by Rev. Fr. O. J. LaMothe at the Bay Shore Park—8:00 p. m.

Parade beginning at 9:00 p. m. Line of march will be from the Park to Onota street, to the postoffice where it will disband.

The V-J Day parade is hoped to be made as much as possible, to re-enact the V-J Day parade held last year marking the close of actual fighting in World War II.

Fire Chief George McKenzie was not certain if "all" the elements in last year's V-J Day parade would be re-enacted this year however as he said that the bonfire held at the corner of Elm avenue and Superior street that night had the firemen out the following day to snuff out street tar which was still burning. Chief MacKenzie is pondering that problem this year.

Local Restaurants, Taverns To Remain Open On Wednesday

Munising.—All business places in Munising will close for the V-J Day celebration with a few exceptions. Most of the restaurants will remain open the better part of the day, and the taverns will be open.

The post office will be open from 8 a. m. to 12 o'clock noon for window service and the lobby will be open all day until 6 o'clock. One city carrier delivery will be made in the morning and the rural carrier will take his route as usual, it was announced by Postmaster Edward Genry yesterday. Regular outgoing mail service will be handled as usual, he said.

The United States Employment office, will be open with office hours as usual from 8:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. The claims clerk of the Michigan Compensation commission will not be in the office, however, but will be at the local USES office all day Saturday.

Queen Nominations For Alger County Are Coming In Slow

Munising.—A few nominations from throughout the county for Alger county and Munising queen have been received by the Chamber of Commerce office, it was announced by Lewis J. Merwin, secretary, yesterday, but the ballots are coming in slow.

Mr. Merwin said the closing time for the local contest will be at 5 o'clock Wednesday, August 14 when all ballots must be in the office of the Chamber of Commerce here. Due to celebration of V-J Day, the board of directors will not hold their meeting to select the queen until Thursday, August 15, it was announced yesterday. Their selection will be phoned into headquarters of the U. P. State Fair queen contest, Mr. Merwin said, in order to get it in by the deadline, August 16.

Many cities throughout the Upper Peninsula are entering the queen contest which will be held August 31 at the fair grounds in Escanaba.

Plans to outfit the Alger county-Munising queen with a unique costume have been discussed. The costume will include such creations as a hat made from a wooden bowl from the local Munising Woods Products company plant, and a dress fashioned from special paper from the Munising Paper company plant, and other specialized items, to be picked from various Munising industrial plants.

Munising Firms, Individuals Gave Kids Boxing Ring

Munising.—The young fighters of Munising who will be using the boxing ring on V-J Day and for the weekly bouts which are scheduled at the Bay View addition, have quite a list of firms and local people to be thankful for, for donations making it possible to have the ring.

Biggest item of course was the donation of the city of Munising of enough lumber to make a regulation size ring, 22 feet square. The Alger county hardware, and the Munising hardware, furnished the nails to put the lumber togethter. The turnbuckles came from the Atlas Plywood company, the canvas from the Munising Paper Mill, two of the ropes for the ring from Frank Carr of Beaver Park and one rope from Rossie Anderson of the Anderson gas station, the eyebolts were made by Frank Wise and furnished by the Alger county garage. The Johnson brothers, who are local carpenter contractors, working on a house across from the ring site, donated their time and skill to splice the rope to make the ring.

Those who were responsible for the construction of the ring itself are: Jim O'Boyle, George Dougherty, Joe Perry, Bob Nebel, H. Gollinger and other interested persons of the neighborhood including the 'kids.'

Commission Okehs Sewer Project On North Fifteenth

North Tenth street will be extended from Railway avenue to Third avenue north, it was decided by the City Commission in regular meeting Monday night.

Right-of-way across what is known as the Commons is being acquired by the city from the Grand Rapids Trust company. The property is being donated to the city by the Trust company, it was reported.

At the south end, or at Railway avenue, which is a half block north of Superior avenue, the right of way is 70 feet in width and tapers to 50 feet where it joins North Tenth at Third avenue north. The piece is nearly 800 feet in length.

Plans and specifications for laying of a sewer in 15th street from Third to Fourth avenue north at a cost of $1,800 were approved by the commission. It will be financed by special assessment.

Property owners in the vicinity of the depot will be contacted to learn their views toward allowing establishment of an auto body bumping plant in that area. Establishment would require a change in the zoning regulations in that area. The proposed site is now Class A residential.

City Manager H. J. Henrikson was authorized to prepare plans, specifications and cost estimate on laying of a sewer on Dakota avenue between 16th and 17th streets.

Lundin-Etten

Miss Betty Mae Lundin, Milwaukee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lundin, 1228 Wisconsin avenue, city, became the bride of Earl D. Etten of Milwaukee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Arnoldussen, Appleton, Wis., at an 8 o'clock ceremony on Saturday morning, Aug. 10, at All Saints Catholic church. Rev. Fr. Joseph Schaul performed the double ring ceremony.

The music of the mass was played by Mrs. C. A. LaFave, organist and director. Baskets of pastel colored gladiolus placed on the main altar and side altars formed the church decorations.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white net over brocaded satin gown with three quarter length sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip Juliet veil was gathered to a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses, baby breath and white snapdragons and her only jewelry was a small gold cross and chain, a gift of the groom.

Miss Janet Lundin, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and was attired in a blue net over satin dress with a pink shoulder length Juliet veil, gathered to a headdress of net flowers. Her bouquet consisted of pink roses and blue delphinium, accented with white.

Miss Eleanore Kopp was bridesmaid, and wore a pink net over satin dress with a blue shoulder length Juliet veil gathered to a headdress of net flowers. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and blue delphinium with accents of white.

Harry Lundin Jr., brother of the bride, was best man and Jack Weber ushered.

The bride's mother chose a blue and white print dress with blue and white accessories and her shoulder corsage was of red roses and blue delphinium.

A wedding breakfast for immediate members of the bridal party was served at the home of the bride's parents. A wedding dinner was served later with covers laid for 85 guests. A 3-tiered wedding cake topped by the traditional bride and groom centered the table. A reception followed for 125 guests from 2 to 8 p. m.

The bride wore a black and white checked suit with black and white accessories for her going away outfit and her shoulder corsage consisted of pink roses and blue delphinium.

Following their wedding trip to Sault Ste. Marie, the couple will make their home at 931 North Cass street, Milwaukee.

Close One Taken By Pirates, 3 to 2

Pittsburgh, Aug. 13 (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates made it four wins in a row under their new owners by taking a close one from the Cincinnati Reds tonight, 3 to 2, before 15,575 fans. Jimmy Brown's single in the eighth, scoring Bob Elliott, won the game.

Jack Hallett, who took over the pitching assignment for Tobacco John Lanning in the sixth, limited the Reds to two hits in the last four innings, both infield blows of the scratch variety. Hallett got credit for the victory.

Grady Hatton, Red third baseman, poled out a triple and his twelfth home run of the season to drive in both Cincinnati runs.

The Pirates combined Al Lopez' double, an infield out and Elbie Fletcher's infield single to count one in the third. Billy Cox's double and a single by Lopez accounted for the second run in the seventh.

CARDS COOLED BY BRUINS, 1-0

Young Lefthander Holds Redbirds To 3 Hits; Musial Doubles

Chicago, Aug. 13 (AP)—Johnny Schmitz, young lefthanded pitcher of the Chicago Cubs, kept the St. Louis Cardinals from gaining temporary possession of first place in the National league standings here today when he fashioned a three hit performance into a 1-0 victory over the visiting Redbirds.

One of the Cardinals' three hits was Stan Musial's first inning double, giving the National league's batting leader a record of five straight hits since St. Louis arrived here yesterday. It was also Musial's thirteenth hit in 15 times at bat before Schmitz really cooled him down.

CATCHER BENCHED

Chicago, Aug. 13 (AP)—Catcher Clyde McCullough of the Chicago Cubs sustained a broken little finger on his right hand from a foul tip off the bat of St. Louis' Harry Walker today and will be benched indefinitely. The mishap occurred in the ninth inning of the Cubs' 1-0 triumph over the cards.

After that the Cardinal hitting against Schmitz included singles by Harry Walker and Erv Dusak. Walker singled to open the seventh. After Musial struck out, Walker stole second but was stranded as Schmitz pitched past Whitey Kurowski and Enos Slaughter.

Dusak revived St. Louis hopes by singling to open the eighth. Marty Marion sacrificed him to second, but that was as far as he got as two pinch batters — Terry Moore and Buster Adams—failed to produce.

The Cubs scored their own run in the second. Phil Cavarretta, first up, was given the only pass of the game by Harry Brecheen. Andy Pafko sacrificed and Phil rode to third on Bill Nicholson's infield out.

The Sports Scoreboard

By Harry Grayson

Neptune, N. J. (NEA.)—Tami Mauriello is training at the Jumping Brook Golf and Country Club here, and in the words of the late Tex Rickard, you "never seed anything like it."

Of course, you know what Tami is training for—his fight with Joe Louis at Yankee Stadium in New York come Sept. 18. But don't let the date-line fool you. Nor the name of the club, either.

Neptune naturally reminds one of the ocean and the ocean naturally reminds one of diving. And Jumping Brook is obvious. But don't jump to the conclusion that Tami is training for a dive. Perish the thought! That's as far from Tami's mind as Ted Williams can sock that old apple.

The layout here was made to order for ideal training; indoor and outdoor rings, baseball diamond that's a honey and a golf course that even a duffer would admire. Murray Goodman, drumbeater for the Mauriello camp, tabs this the finest he has ever seen, and Murray has seen 'em all.

The Bronx barkeep has a host of sparring partners here and hes putting on a show every day. But not for free. Even little children have to pay to see the great man train.

Apparently there's no ceiling on prices that may be charged and the scale here is $1.50 on weekdays, $2.00 on Saturdays and Sundays. That's for adults. Kiddies are admitted at 80 cents weekdays, one buckaroo on Saturdays. All prices include tax.

The Jumping Brook Club is about four miles from Asbury Park, but denizens of that resort have not been breaking records running over to see Tami in his workouts.

Mauriello voiced the opinion that he was afraid Joe Louis might be holding him too cheap. "If he does," glowers the Bronx stickman "it'll be just too bad for him. I'm taking this fight seriously. Of course, I expect to become acclimated to the sea air pretty soon. The air down here is not as good as it is in the Bronx. There the atmosphere has individuality. Here you can't smell nothin'. It's just air with no flavor to it."

Which is remindful of the time Francis Albertani, boxing publicist extraordinary, was assigned to cover a fighter's training at Gus Wilson's old camp at Orangeburg, N. Y. Francis stood the strain for the three days, returned to New York City and threw up the job.

"I spent three horrible days and nights there," explained the drum beater. "I couldn't stand the quiet and strange air. It was too fresh. I had to come back where the smells are familiar and the rumble of the elevated trains lull me to sleep."

Let's hope the smell at the Yankee Stadium is more refreshing Sept. 18 than it was on June 19 when Billy Conn was there with Louis.

Benefit Game Will Be Played Thursday For Jack Weber

The Peoples Bar will play the Liberty Loans in a benefit softball game at the lighted field at 8:30 o'clock Thursday night.

Proceeds will go to Jack Weber, right fielder of the Peoples Bar team, who suffered a spike wound in his left hand and will be laid up the rest of the season.

Batteries will be: Peoples Bar, George Wiltsie and Ernie Derouin; Liberty Loans, Eis and Bob Jerow, pitch; and Anderson, catch.

De GRANDS WIN

FELLER BOPPED BY TIGERS, 1-0

Dizzy Trout Produces 3-Hitter; Ed Lake Singles In Run

Cleveland, Aug. 13 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers defeated Bob Feller and the Cleveland Indians 1 to 0 tonight before a mammoth crowd of 65,765 which turned out as the Tribe honored its trainer, Max (Lefty) Weisman, for 25 years' services.

The crowd swelled the season's Cleveland home attendance to 860,348.

Feller, deprived of his 22nd victory, pitched no-hit ball for six innings, then yielded a single in the seventh and two more in the eighth which, combined with a walk, enabled the Tigers to score.

The Indians' mound ace went out for a pinch-hitter and Bob Lemon hurled the last inning, yielding one more blow to Detroit.

During the eight innings Feller worked, he fanned seven to run his season's strikeout total to 262 and surpass his own season strikeout record of 261 in 1941.

In the eighth Roy Cullenbine walked and advanced on a single by Jimmy Webb, then raced home on another single by Ed Lake.

Ferriss Runs Up Victory No. 20 On Athletics, 7 to 5

Philadelphia, Aug. 13 (AP)—Dave (Boo) Ferriss won his 20th victory of the season against four defeats as the Boston Red Sox handed the Philadelphia Athletics a 7 to 5 defeat tonight before 17,033. It was Ferriss' eighth straight mound victory.

Ferriss thus became the first pitcher to win 20 or more games in his first two seasons in the majors since Wes Ferrell 15 years ago while Ferrell was with Cleveland.

The mighty Ted Williams started the Red Sox off in the first with a double, scoring Johnny Pesky who had walked and Dom DiMaggio who had singled.

The A's came back in the first, scoring two on two walks, an infield out and a bunt by Barney McCosky.

Boston added two in the second on two walks, a fly, a bunt and Pesky's double. Williams, first up in the eighth, doubled and scored on Jim Russell's single. Bobby Doerr also tallied on Hal Wagner's single in the same inning.

The final Boston run came in the ninth on Pesky's two bagger and singles by DiMaggio and Rudy York.

The A's tallied once in the fifth and threatened with two more runs in the ninth on a walk by Sam Chapman and singles by Tuck Stainback, Elmer Valo and Oscar Grimes.

Green Bay Golfing Lass Is Dark Horse For Amateur Title

BY DON STULL

Cleveland, O., Aug. 13 (AP)—A 19-year-old Green Bay, Wis., lass, Mary McMillin, bounced into the role of dark horse entry in the Women's Western Amateur Golf title tournament here today, scoring a startling two-up victory over Defending Champion Phyllis Otto of Atlantic, Ia., in the opening round of match play.

The Green Bay idol broke up a see-saw battle on the 15th hole by sinking a 60-foot pitch shot for an eagle three and a one-stroke lead, and tallied a birdie four on the final hole for her two-up margin.

Mary toured the Country club's 6,500 yards of fairways in 78, two over par. Her 22-year-old foe finished with 80, four over.

Miss McMillin's startling victory eliminated one of the tourney's three top-heavy favorites, but the other two—Louise Suggs of Lithia Springs, Ga., and Mrs. Mildred (Babe) Didrikson Zaharias of Denver—triumphed without much trouble.

Miss Suggs, who is seeking her seventh major tourney triumph of the season, disposed of Mary Agnes Wall of Menominee, Mich., 4 and 3, while Mrs. Zaharias, clowning part of the way, registered 73 for a decisive 6 and 5 win over Betty Jane Haemerle of St. Louis.

Rapid River

Gilland-Lancour

Rapid River—St. Charles church at Rapid River was the scene of a wedding on Saturday which united in marriage Miss Delores Ann Gilland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Gilland, and Norman Peter Lancour, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lancour, all of Rapid River.

Fresh cut flowers decorated the altar of the church for the 9 o'clock nuptial mass, which was celebrated by the Rev. Fr. Thomas Anderson.

The bride wore a gown of white net over satin, fashioned with a basque bodice and a full skirt extending in a train. Her lace-edged veil was held in place by a tiara, and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli and baby breath.

The Lancour twins, Lela and Leola, were the bride's attendants. Miss Lela Lancour wore pink, and her sister wore blue. Their gowns, fashioned identically, were of silk with net skirts. They carried bouquets of rosebuds and gladioli in shades to match their gowns.

Virgil Turan served as best man, and the usher was Francis Pepin.

Music of the mass was sung by the choir of St. Charles church, with Mrs. Sandy Short, organist. The soloist, Miss Beverly Bresadola, sang Gounods "Ave Maria" at the offertory, and "On This Day," at the conclusion of the service.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gilland chose a black dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Lancour wore a green print dress. They wore similar corsages of white gladioli and red roses.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at Belle's Coffee Shop to the bridal party and members of the families. Later 24 guests attended a dinner at the Chicken Shack. In the evening a reception was held at the Gilland home in Rapid River.

When the couple left later for a wedding trip, the bride was wearing a pale yellow suit with matching accessories. Upon their return, they will reside in Escanaba, where the bridegroom is employed.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Joan Elliot, Gladstone; Bertha Anderson of Ensign; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lancour, Mr. and Mrs. Pepin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Derwin, and Miss Theresa Lancour of Escanaba.

Lightning Strikes

Lightning struck the cupola of St. Charles church during the electrical storm Friday, causing slight damage. Some shingles were torn off. Several women were sweeping the church at the time.

At Ensign, lightning struck the granary on the August Froberg farm. It also struck the summer kitchen tearing a hole in the ceiling and wall, and then struck the electric light pole in the yard. Mrs. Carl Stenlund and her sister, Sadie Froberg, were in the kitchen at the time. They received a slight shock from which they quickly recovered.

Lightning also struck a tree across the road from the Ranger station at Whitefish.

Services Thursday

Masses will be held at St. Charles church on Thursday at seven and eight o'clock Thursday, a holy day of obligation, is the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Esther Society

The Esther Society of the Calvary Lutheran church will meet Thursday afternoon at two o'clock.

WHITE SOX NIP BROWNS TWICE

Six Errors Figure In Torrid Tussle On Soggy Diamond

St. Louis, Aug. 13 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox won a twilight-night battle with the St. Louis Browns for sixth place in the American league tonight by 3-2, 2-1 scores, a total of six errors figuring in the hotly-played contest on a soggy diamond.

The games were the first twilight-night series in either major league this season.

A ninth-inning single by Taft Wright scoring Luke Appling accounted for Chicago's second triumph after the game had been tied from the fourth, when each team managed a run.

Orval Groove, scattering four hits, walked Jeff Heath in the ninth with only one out but he forced Walt Judnich to roll to Joe Kuhel and struck out Al Zarilla.

Bob Kennedy saved the first game for the White Sox in the seventh with a brilliant throw from left field which caught Mark Christman at the plate and cut off what would have been the tying run. The Browns trailed by two runs going into that inning but had to be satisfied with Johnny Berardino's single scoring Frank Mancuso.

A two-run single by Frankie Hayes in the seventh scoring Thurman Tucker and Appling paid off for Chicago's first-game victory credited to Ed Smith.

Vet Is Graduated After 19 Years

Philadelphia—(AP)—The GI Bill of Rights helped John H. Dahms finish the college education that the depression interrupted 16 years earlier.

At 18, Dahms entered Yale University. He completed his junior year and then, in 1930, had to drop out. He joined the Army. During the war he rose to chief warrant officer in the Air Forces, stationed near Manchester, England.

He was wounded by a V-1 bomb blast and, in 1944, was discharged and went to work for the Brown Instrument Co., Philadelphia division of the Minneapolis-Honeywell Regulator Co. Last year he went to Yale on leave of absence.

Now, graduated near the top of his class 19 years after matriculating, he has his bachelor of engineering degree—at 36.

BIG SMUGGLING RING SMASHED

Five Members Of Family In New York Involved In Black Market

By RICHARD KASISCHKE

Berlin, (AP)—Officials of the U. S. Army's Criminal Investigation division said they had broken a potential multi-million-dollar international blackmarket ring allegedly operated by a New York man and his four sons across three continents.

The CID announced it had one son, Lewis L. Warner, 23, meteorologist for a commercial airline, under detention here and that a second son, Oscar Selig Warner, 29, had been taken into custody in Paris through joint action with French police.

A CID spokesman in a formal Press conference said no formal charges had yet been drafted but that charges would be preferred here against Lewis, probably based on a violation of the trading with the enemy act and engaging in business for profit without a license in contravention of army rules which also apply to civilians in the European theater.

The spokesman added the Provost Marshal General in Washington had been requested to institute action against the other three members of the family: David L. Warner, the father of 253 West 72nd St. New York City. Alfred Warner of the same address, and Robert Warner, a UNRRA employe in Shanghai.

BUYS LAUNDRY — Announcement was made yesterday that John Bissell of Escanaba had repurchased the Escanaba Steam Laundry, 705 Ludington street, from A. J. Perrin, who has operated the business the past three years. Mr. Bissell originally acquired the laundry from Mrs. E. A. Grabowski, but disposed of it to Mr. Perrin when he entered military service. He joined the U. S. navy in November, 1942, and was promoted from ensign to lieutenant, junior grade, in January, 1944. He was honorably discharged from the service several months ago. Mr. Bissell took charge of the Escanaba Steam Laundry yesterday.

Bread Production Sliced In Chicago By Bakers' Strike

Chicago, (AP)—A strike by two locals of the AFL Bakery and Confectionery Workers Union lowered bread production in Chicago, but estimates varied widely as to the amount of the cut.

Union officials said bread production was cut approimately 20 per cent by the strike, affecting 550 members of locals 2 and 62 of the union. However, a spokesman for the Association of Retail Bakers said most small retail bake shops were closed, and estimated the city's bread supply has been cut 50 per cent by the work stoppage.

Your old car is IN THE HOME STRETCH

This new Engine Clean-up Program may be the one thing that will give it stamina for the final spurt

You're probably seeing some new cars, these days. And they're mighty welcome to the eye. For their arrival means your old one can be replaced in the reasonably near future.

But this last stretch may be the hardest one of all. Chances are the engine is dirty. Sticky deposits, long accumulating in that old engine, may suddenly clog the oiling system—with disastrous results.

To meet the situation, your Standard Oil Dealer offers a new, economical, five-point Engine Clean-up Program. It includes the use of two remarkable new Standard Oil Products—Stano-Purge and Stano-Vim—which do an effective cleaning job without requiring expensive dismantling of the engine.

Drive in. Unless your engine has been cleaned recently, it may be dangerously dirty. If it is, this new-style clean-up is just what you need!

New, Economical, 5 Point Engine Clean-up Program

1 STANO-PURGE—Purges crankcase and engine. Cleans oil screen. Removes deposits tending to clog oil lines and channels.

2 STANO-VIM—Introduced through carburetor air intake, it cleans out deposits in valve area. Restores pep, power, smooth engine operation. Treatment includes cleaning the air cleaner.
